

It was a memorable week of fiturgical celebration, beginning with the blessing of palms and concluding with the celebration of the Resurrection on Easter Sunday. It was great to be blessed with such good weather. The highpoint of the celebrations was the Easter Vigil, with the baptism of six members of the Tubbs family: Shantelle, Caine, Madison, Alfie, Isabelle and Esme. Congratulations for the on being welcomed into God's family through the Sacrament of Baptism. The Reconciliation Service on Tuesday evening struck a chord with so many, with the thoughtful reflection by Monsignor Joe Chambers. Those who were Confirmed a week earlier took a full part in the Holy Thursday Celebration of the Lord's Supper. Fi Brendan MeBride joined us for the Celebration of the Lord's Passion on Good Friday, immediately preceded by the Street Stations. The morning Stations of the Cross for children and the evening Stations are always inspiring and well attended. Our sincere thanks to everyone who was involved in all the preparations including the Altar Society and the Easter Garden Team, led by Charlie Boyle. Readers, Ministers of the Eucharist, Servers and Collectors played their full part. Maeve Murray and the Senior Choir made such a substantial contribution to all the celebrations. Janet's contribution on the violin was very much appreciated. The Junior Choir, under Ann O'Donnell's care, worked wonders as well. And it was very uplifting to have two group of young singers present. Foisin & Kelly: Dearbhla, Orla, Jack & Eoin. And Sara O'Donnell provided the perfect musical accompaniment, along with Miriam. We are grateful to them all. A particular feature of Lent and Holy Week was the attrowrk in the Sarced Space, mostly produced by Brian & Naomi Fleury and one by Roisfn O'Donnell. Their excellent productions are very much appreciated. Patricia O'Boyle does great work as sacristan and James Gavigan was called on a number of times for important tasks which he carreid out with wue digiting the Parents First Communion Group, and i	Easter Tha	nks	rr

Brian & Naomi Fleury and one by Roisín O'Donnell. Their excellent productions are very much appreciated. Patricia O'Boyle does great work as sacristan and James Gavigan was called on a number of times for important tasks which he carried out with such dignity. The church interior and grounds are maintained by Community Employment members and we are very grateful to them.There were plenty on hand to help with the children's celebrations, including the Parents First Communion Group, and it was worth all the effort. Also, the countless hours spent sewing together the Garment of Suffering and the Stoles for the newly-baptised are much appreciated.Ann, the Parish Secretary, coordinated everything superbly. Pleasure in the job puts perfection in the work! May we continue to grow in faith and wisdom, guided by the Spirit of the Risen Christ.Parents First Communion Team meets this Monday 28th April at 8pm in the Parish Office.Trócaire Boxes: Lent 2014.
