Remembering 1916

We remember them,
the men, the women, the children,
the Irish, of the North and of the South,
the British, who were injured,
or who died in, or as a result of,
the Easter Rising of 1916.

We remember the living sacrifice.
We remember the lost descendants.
We remember the courage.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord,
and may perpetual light shine upon them.
May they rest in peace.
